

ARTIST'S STATEMENT
This work is a study in color and form, exploring the relationship between light and shadow. The composition is a complex interplay of overlapping, semi-transparent geometric shapes in shades of blue, green, yellow, and white. The shapes are layered and fragmented, creating a sense of depth and movement. The overall effect is a vibrant, multi-dimensional space that changes as the viewer's perspective shifts.